

Become a Community Difference Maker

PROJECT OVERVIEW

The Innovation Through Pride and Prevention project (IP²) is an initiative of The Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) in collaboration with The 6:52 Project Foundation, Inc.®

ADPH works to identify populations at increased risk for infectious diseases in order to reduce transmission to others and the development of related complications. The 6:52 Project Foundation, Inc.® devotes its resources and energy globally to helping individuals and organizations interested in research, education, and/or the prevention and spread of infectious diseases.

Using a tailored curriculum, IP² project provides specific training to community* members who, subsequently, are equipped with the knowledge and ability to translate that training into replication leadership, or 'Community Difference Makers.'

*community defined as key populations by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)

PROJECT GOAL

IP² is a community-focused and community-led project, whose goal is to develop training and other related infectious disease testing opportunities for selected candidates; that they may use the insight gained from the project as the catalyst to enhance and disseminate effective infectious disease prevention, testing, treatment, and support information in their respective communities.
